 The proceeds from the redemption of FD No. 086413012709 were credited to the company current account no. ICICI bank 086405001098 on 19.08.2026, which also includes multiple other business related transactions. Consequently, the commingling of funds restricts the ability to establish a direct transaction level linkage between the FD redemption proceeds and the working capital related payments.*

As per the explanation provided to us by the company management, part of the FD redemption proceeds were utilised to reimburse working capital payments made prior to the redemption date, while the remaining funds were utilised towards working capital payments made after the redemption date. However, in the absence of a clear transaction level reconciliation the utilisation of the entire redeemed amount could not be verified by us. Hence, we relied on CA certificate for verification of the utilisation.
